LAURA LUNGARINI

Oil market analyst, eni

As a PhD geologist, she attended a Master in Energy management in 2007.

In 2008, she worked few months in FEEM (Fondazione Eni Enrico Mattei) as a senior researcher: she was in charge of an analysis of the quality of the main marketed crudes.

Since the end of 2008, she has been working in eni as an oil market analyst. Her team is responsible for the oil market scenarios (price, demand and supply).
