ANITA OPHEIM

Executive Officer at the Norwegian Oil and Gas Archives

Anita Opheim has a master degree in Art and Culture Science from the University of Stavanger. Her Master Thesis focused on Stavanger's identity as an oil capital, and how the city can build a reputation that is unrelated to the oil industry.

She has previously worked at the public library of Stavanger and as a document manager in Statoil. She is currently working in Norsk olje- og gassarkiv, where she helps documenting the Norwegian oil and gas sector by retrieving archives from a wide selection of corporations in the industry.
